

DAR SEVEN

MARRAKECH

WHITE ROOM

GUEST ROOM

LOGGIA ROOM

BROWN ROOM

DAR SEVEN

Dar Seven is located in the heart of the Medina, the old town inside the ancient walls. Recently renovated, this three floors Dar has been transformed into a holiday home for the owners, Prince Pietro and Princess Letizia Ruspoli and their children, and the house can now be rented for exclusive holidays, Princess Letizia, who already runs the magnificent one-suite Residenza Napoleone III in Rome, where the latest technology is combined with grand furnishings, was encouraged by her friends to do the same with their house in Marrakech.

Single Suites

- High season

Loggia Suite	350 euros per night
Brown Room	150 euros per night
White Room	290 euros per night
Guest Room	240 euros per night

- Low seasons (July-August)

Loggia Suite	300 euros per night
Brown Room	100 euros per night
White Room	240 euros per night
Guest Room	190 euros per night

The price includes:

A typical Moroccan breakfast, mint tea, dry fruits, moroccan cakes and mineral water during the day, a brochure giving further informations for your stay. Within the riad all guests have shared access to its main inner courtyard and dining areas, downstairs lounge and reading room, and the riad's roof top complete with covered seating and lounge area

Whole House

- High season

1000 euros per night (Minimum 3 nights) 4 bedrooms and 4 bathrooms on-suite

- Low seasons (July-August)

800 euros per night (Minimum 3 nights) The price of the rent for the whole house includes:

Household staff: head cook Fatima, House boy Aziz and his assistant

The transfer by car to and from Marrakech airport, a typical Moroccan breakfast, guided tour of the souk (3 hours long) on your first day, mint tea, dry fruits, moroccan cakes and mineral water during the day, a brochure giving further information and suggestions for your stay.

The Dar is air-conditioned (cold and hot) and equipped with a computer, television, cordless phone and fax. We can arrange beauty treatments, a day beneath the palms of a swimming pool and private musical entertainment at Dar Seven..